PASADENA BUDDHIST CHURCH

DEDICATION

As we pause to reflect on our first decade of existence as a Buddhist church we think of many things:

We think of our indebtedness to our forefathers who brought the Buddha Dharma to America and tended it lovingly. We think of our duty to honor this priceless doctrine by understanding and practicing it. We think of our responsibility to guide our children along the noble eightfold path. We think of our obligation to share what wisdom we have with the stranger who is seeking a way to enlightenment.

Our moral obligations would be heavy, indeed, were they not also privileges. Knowing that the gift of the Dharma is the most valuable gift one man can offer to another, we joyfully re-dedicate ourselves on this occasion to the Bodhisattva ideal of encompassing all men in perfect wisdom and compassion.

KENRYU T. TSUJI
Bishop

Dear Members:

On behalf of the Buddhist Churches of America, may I extend my heartiest congratulations on the Tenth Anniversary of the founding of your church.

Since the inception of the temple, both ministers and members have worked hard to make the Sangha what it is today. You are to be highly commended for establishing one of the finest temple complexes in the country. For the benefit of the community, you have presented many interesting social and cultural projects and for your own members you have developed a strong Buddhist education program.

Now that you have laid a solid foundation for the future, may you all work together, hand in hand, in the Nembutsu to attain greater depths in the spiritual life of the Sangha.

Gassho,

PASADENA BUDDHIST CHURCH
1993 Glen Avenue, Pasadena, California

The Pasadena Buddhist Sangha has grown from a few members to about 300 and is still growing in numbers. This dedication of our existence, celebrated on this 10th Anniversary today, has been made possible only through all members working together spiritually with love-compassion to create this temple where one can come freely to learn the Buddha Dharma as Shinran Shonin has shown us.

We are grateful to our forefathers who, throughout the ages, handed down the heritage of Buddhism so we, the present generation may carry on from the beginning to time unending.

With the great changes going on around us, we rededicate ourselves today to the teachings of the Amida of wisdom and enlightenment. The future is ahead of us. Where we leave off today, we hopefully expect to see many more anniversaries, new members and dedications. Let us, therefore, go forth with the Namu Amida Butsu to guide our lives to complete awareness of mind and feelings.

BRIEF OUTLINE OF PASADENA BUDDHIST CHURCH

In the fall of 1948 the Pasadena Buddhist Sunday School was born under the guidance of the Los Angeles Honpa Hongwanji Betsuin, with the Rev. Daitetsu Hayashima as the head minister and Miss Toshi Nagata as superintendent. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Yukio Nishimoto was utilized for the Sunday services. In the spring of 1951, under the leadership of Mr. Kameichi Ogawa, the new church was dedicated at 1106 Lincoln Avenue.

The Sunday School program grew so rapidly that in a matter of six years its edifice became too cramp, therefore expansion plans had to be instituted.

In 1957, a two acres property at 1993 Glen Avenue was purchased at the cost of $8,000.00. In the following year, Pasadena Buddhist Church received its independence from its mother church, Los Angeles Hompa Hongwanji, with its full blessing. The Rev. Masami Nakagaki was sent by the mother church to be assigned as the first minister.

On November 2, 1958, the Temple and the Classroom building were completed at the cost of $150,000.00 and formally dedicated.

In September of 1961 with Rev. Nakagaki being transferred to Hompa Hongwanji to become Vice-Rinban, the church received its new minister, Rev. Shoki Mohri.

In October of 1962, the recreation hall was completed. Its cost was $130,000.00. Later, the newly purchased shrines of Saint Shinran and Saint Rennyo were enshrined in the Temple.

In 1964 a Tea House received as a donation from the Iemoto of Ura Senke School in Kyoto, Japan, was dedicated July 10, 1965.

In 1966 the property at 1987 Glen Avenue was purchased at the cost of $8,000.00. On this lot, the minister's residence was built at a cost of $35,000.00.

JAPANESE GARDENS
A lovely garden reflecting the mood and atmosphere of Japan is the newest addition to Cherry Blossom Lawn at Rose Hills. Located around the "Lake of the Roses" it includes a charming meditation house and an arched bridge.

Natural Beauty that Endures

Rose Hills is renowned as Southern California's most spacious and naturally beautiful Memorial Park

Fifty Years of careful planning and care have resulted in a lovely setting, with gentle slopes and green hillsides looking to the majestic San Gabriel Mountains. And Rose Hills will continue to grow more beautiful because of the government-supervised Endowment Care Fund. The famous Pageant of Roses Garden at Rose Hills is one of the most striking displays of floral magnificence to be seen anywhere in the Nation. Thousands of roses in hundreds of varieties provide an impact of color and fragrance that is truly unforgettable. An exquisite and rare Japanese Garden; lovely camellias in season; a great panorama of assorted flowers, shrubs and trees; Chapels and other structures that blend with the mood of natural grandeur—Rose Hills has all these and more. Is this too much beauty? Not in the opinion of thousands of families who want this serene and comforting retreat for solace and inspiration. Certainly not when it is remembered that at Rose Hills so much more—costs no more. Beauty is an extra value at Rose Hills. All cemetery and mortuary services are available at this one convenient place—and so much more, costs no more.

Plan to visit the famed PAGEANT OF ROSES GARDEN

The beauty of over 4,000 rose bushes creates an unforgettable emotional experience. Nearly 400 different varieties include the newest All-America selections as well as roses dating back to 1592.
